Loop adopted, theater deferred

The plan line for the loop street 295 feet north of Campbell Ave. received unanimous approval of the Campbell City Council Monday night but action on the McGlincey Neighborhood Lane Use Plan was deferred until Oct. 27.

Neighboring residents affected by implementation of the proposed new westerly street were chided by councilmen for not coming forth during the two years that the route was studied.

Their spokesman, Carl Field, 125 N. Second told the council he did not feel the loop was the answer.

"It is far too expensive and I think we'll have a congestion problem where the street rejoins Campbell Ave. by the Bank of America and at the railroad tracks.

"I favor making four lanes on Campbell Ave. by removing parking at peak hours."

Field admitted a shortage of streets running east and west did pose a problem. He questioned whether removing a few feet from some lots as proposed might ruin those properties.

Mrs. Edna Smith, another local resident, inquired as to how the loop would be financed.

City Manager Bob Stephens stated that the city annually received about $185,000 from gas tax monies for the city's major street system.

Arguments concerning Study Area No. 2 of the McGlincey Neighborhood Lane Use Plan followed much of the same line debated at the Planning Commission meeting the previous week.

City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan announced that a petition containing 62 signatures from persons living in the mobile home park developed by Fred Sahadi had been received. The petition was in opposition to a third drive-in movie screen which Syufy Enterprises proposes to develop north of their existing two-screen drive-in theater.

Planning Director Art Kee stated that while he felt a

GEORGE WARNED readers in advance that they would be exposed to my efforts this week and I am glad that he had the opportunity to review my copy before he left town. Otherwise, he might not be able to enjoy his vacation for fear that circulation will be at an all-time low when he returns.

However, he has gone, and I have no chance of passing the buck to any one of the many more qualified citizens of our fair community.

GEORGE has also previously quoted yours truly in this column regarding our opening of school and I wish to begin my few lines on our school district by thanking students, parents, staff members and many others who worked hard and planned well to make our new school year one of the best.

HARD WORK AND PLANning on the part of our total staff paid off on opening day when we enrolled more than 11,000 students with a minimum of confusion. In fact, we think that we did a better job than we might have done had we depended on computer as did some of our neighboring institutions of higher learning.

We understand that some of the colleges and universities only hope for 75% enrollment the first time around on the computer.

We can't live with that percentage because we have more than 1200 youngsters in kindergarten and they cannot make out the new cards and register as the more mature students do in college.

There is reason for our registration of kindergarteners in February each year and it is easily understood that this early registration allows sufficient lead time for us to hire qualified teachers, provide the proper size desks and chairs and purchase supplies needed at each grade level.

OUR OPENING DAY with a minimum of problems could cause us to sit back, smile and pat ourselves on the back if we didn't realize that there are problems to be solved in the field of education. A more realistic view of the situation reveals that we have real problems that need community assistance in seeking solutions. The remainder of this column is to be devoted to the problems as viewed by yours truly:

TAXES–How much higher can we permit taxes to spiral?

I am just as concerned as any other homeowner regarding the fantastic increases we have witnessed during the past few years.

The annual crisis is even more acute for the retired members of our community, low income families, senior citizens and others living on fixed incomes.

I do not have a ready solution but I am willing to join forces with any responsible group of citizens who would like to make taxation a real campaign issue next year when our legislators seek another term of office in Sacramento.

WV campus not resolved; city asks college to stay

The desire to resolve the status of Campbell's West Valley College campus brought together city officials and the college board of trustees last week.

In an informal meeting, six of the college's seven-man board and the college president met with four councilmen, four planning commissioners, the city manager, chief of police and planning director in a two-hour discussion of the future of the college in Campbell, principally at its present location at Campbell Ave. and Winchester Blvd.

The participants expressed a variety of opinions which most stated were their own and did not necessarily reflect the sentiments of their fellow trustees, commissioners and councilmen.

One of the principal topics was an agenda item entitled "Parking Problems Generated by the Presence of West Valley College in Campbell".

John Morgan, chief of police, discussed the inability of his department to provide enough manpower to properly police the 40 minute parking zones which line nearby streets. He indicated that approximately 400 to 500 citations were issued in the school area each month.

College trustees suggested that Morgan investigate the possibility of having the fine raised from $2 to $5 for these citations. "Kind of a negative inducement." said Trustee Don Lindstrom, who remarked that the towing practices introduced at San Jose State College several years ago had discouraged many students from pursuing their illegal parking habits.

Vice Mayor Dean Chamberlin was not in favor of such a move, but rather favored stricter enforcement of present laws. Chief Morgan indicated additional manpower would then be necessary, with the need slacking off in the summer.

Other suggestions to alleviate parking problems included the hiring of meter maids and police science students, the installation of a pedestrian scramble light, and placing flyers on student cars as a warning of future parking enforcement.

The more pressing intent of the meeting, "The Future of the College in Campbell" was next discussed.

Opening remarks by Wallace W. Hall, college president, stated the situation: "Until such time as there are facilities elsewhere, there is going to be a college in Campbell".

Retort was quickly made by William Smeed, councilman, "Why is it taking your board so darned long to make up your mind?"

Chairman Ed Panelli indicated that the trustees had never discussed that aspect (that the campus might remain at its present site) and that a recent proposal from the Citizens Advisory Committee that plans for a south campus be abandoned was a new item.

He outlined projections for eventual campus enrollment and campus locations and indicated that the staff of the Coordinating Council on Higher Education had recently indicated that college campus size should be 7500 instead of the 5000 previously planned. This might mean that the college needs two and one-half campuses instead of three and maybe "this (Campbell) is the half-site".

Indicating the progress of the college to date Bob Brydon, trustee, said, "We made up our mind in Santa Clara and can't implement it." Brydon referred to the failure of three consecutive bond issues which would have allowed purchase of the Mission site in Santa Clara.

Legislative regulations regarding the use of the Campbell campus as a temporary one were explained by Hall, who said that the override tax which made it possible to lease present facilities could not be spent to purchase the Campbell site.

Further discussion included the type of structure which could be built in Campbell and the possibility of the City including the campus in a Neighborhood Development Plan using federal assistance.

Planning Commissioner Norman Paul cautioned the trustees, "I don't think you've looked at what Campbell can do for you."

No action was taken at the meeting, but the trustees did agree to take up the possibility of a permanent Campbell campus at a forthcoming board meeting and give the city fathers their decision.

Architectural and building action Monday

Planning Commissioners will take up a number of architectural site approvals next Monday.

G. C. Morgan is making application for extention of his application for 170 units on the south side of Budd Ave., fronting San Tomas Expressway.

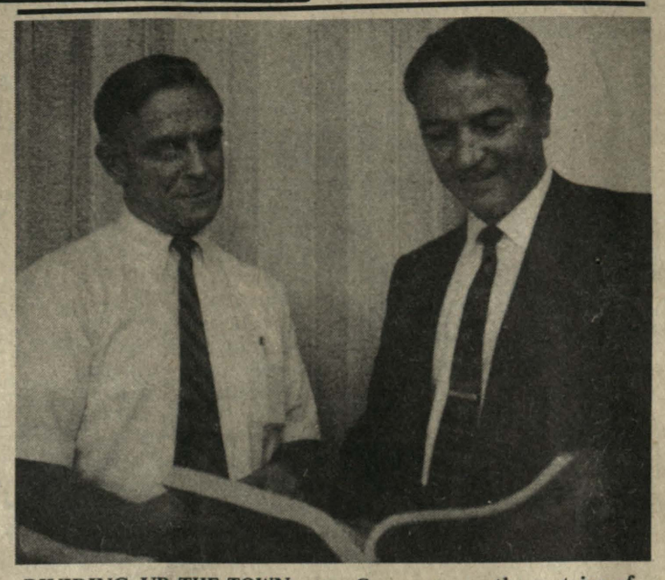
A ten unit apartment house owner, A. Vierra, Jr., seeks approval to add a recreation room at 270 Dunster Dr.

Other applications are for approval of a storage shed at 197 Curtner by Dodge Construction Co. for Dalziel Plumbing, a 13 unit apartment building at 170 W. Rincon by architect Dennis Burrow, and plans for a parking area and two doorways by Stanley Becker for a proposed restaurant at 30 S. Central Ave.

W. J. Mapes seeks to build an industrial building at 581 Division St. and R. V. Cloud seeks a zone change at 301 E. Hacienda to build an auto service center.

United Progreso Arriba will ask for a year's extention of their use permit allowing a senior citizens center in a duplex located at 41 W. Rincon Ave.

A public hearing on a service station, continued from a previous meeting, will be held. Anthony C. Morici is the applicant.



DIVIDING UP THE TOWN--Myron Alexander and Mike Ivicevich look over the list of prospective new members for the Campbell Chamber of Commerce as the captains of two membership teams planning for a one-day membership drive Oct. 30.

C of C kicks off "one-to-one" membership drive October 23

A "one to one" membership drive kick-off luncheon for the Campbell Chamber of Commerce will be held Thursday, Oct. 23, with each member of the Chamber being asked to bring a member.

Members are dividing into two teams headed by Mike Ivicevich, assistant manager of the Wells Fargo bank and Myron Alexander, realtor. The Halloween theme will be employed with Ivicevich heading up the ghouls and Alexander the goblin theme, with each team attempting to bring in the most new members in a concentrated one-day membership drive scheduled for Oct. 30.

Appropriately enough for the team spirit, the guest speaker at the Thursday, Oct. 23, luncheon will be Joe McMullen, head San Jose football coach, who can be expected to deliver a "pep" talk designed to inspire members to "go out and get 'em".

Luncheon reservations may be had by calling the CofC office at 378-8141.

"Topless" ordinance okay; two actions postponed

An ordinance regulating and licensing and prohibiting nude and semi-nude activities was adopted by the Campbell City Council Monday night. Called an "urgency" ordinance, the regulations became immediately effective with their adoption.

In other actions, the council granted a solicitor's permit to Mrs. Lucy Heath, voted to support the Marin County Board of Supervisors in their efforts to acquire land at Point Reyes as a national park, and referred an accident claim to their insurance carrier.

Continued was a public hearing on the Annexation of McGlincey 1969-6 to coincide with the Pre-zoning also necessary.

Two appeals scheduled were continued on request of applicants, Douglas Oil Co. is appealing a setback requirement and Roundhouse Liquors is appealing denial of a sign change.

The council denied requests for crossing guards at two intersections based on the report of City Engineer Bill Wren.

A guard had been requested at San Tomas Expressway and Budd Ave. in the form of a petition and Wren reported on the use of the crossing by school children - all fourth grade level and over. He also referred to the imminence of the pedestrian overcrossing construction which should occur early next year.

He reported also that adequate gaps in the traffic stream on Hacienda Ave. did make it possible for safe crossings to be made.

A proposed rate increase by Mission Yellow Cab Co. was allowed, their first in four years.

Cosmo Perrotta, owner of the Crown Billiards, 1742 Winchester Blvd. was granted an application for a billiard parlor permit, providing he did not increase the number of pinball machines (2) currently in use in the building.

Luoto's Restaurant owners beaten, robbed in own home by armed thugs

Bobbie and Phil Luoto, popular owners of Luoto's restaurant on Winchester Blvd. were robbed of over $3,600, beaten and terrorized for over five hours in their Old Orchard Ave. home by four masked men Thursday night, Oct. 9.

The robbers, who were waiting for the Luoto's in their home, slugged Luoto from behind as he entered his home. Luoto was then handcuffed and hit every time he made a move while the quartet awaited the arrival of Mrs. Luoto.

Mrs. Luoto was surprised upon entering by an armed masked man, blindfolded and taken to a back bedroom where she was held for the five hours while the robbers took turns threatening her. In the meantime the men ransacked the house, located the restaurant keys, and then made frequent trips to the Winchester eating establishment to check on whether the business was closed, using one of the Luoto's own cars for their checking trips.

Finally, after ascertaining that the building was closed for the night, the men left for the restaurant, taking $2.620 in cash and jewelry, the restaurant keys and safe combination. Mrs. Luoto was able to struggle free and reach a neighbor where she phoned for help.

The restaurant had been entered and $1,000 in the safe

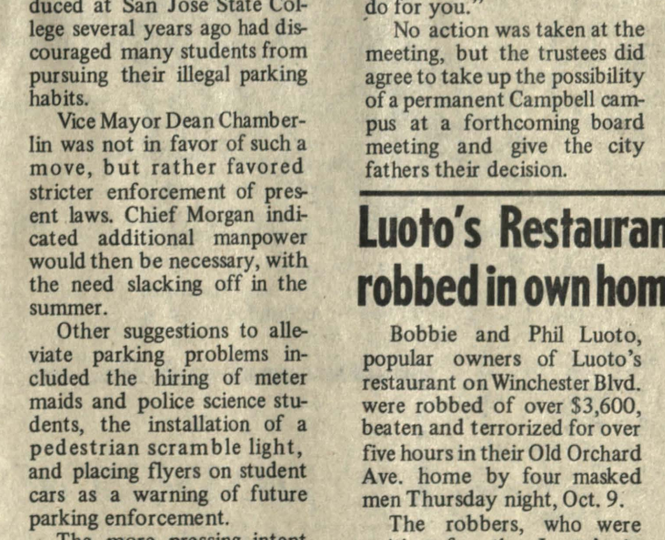
Seniors receive mini-bus check

Excitement ran high in the West Valley Senior Action Center on Rincon Ave. last week upon receipt of a $5,000 check from the Self-Help Foundation to be used in purchasing and maintaining the "mini-bus" needed to solve the senior citizen transportation problem.

Mrs. Irma Reese, director for the center and Mrs. Clara Gregg, transportation chairman, anticipate using the money to purchase a nine-passenger van wagon. A regular schedule will be established with doctor visits, shopping tours, church attendance, visits to the center for regularly scheduled activities and other necessary transportation needs being taken into consideration.

Drivers for the truck are being recruited from off-duty firemen, students and other interested citizens. More volunteers are needed and anyone wishing to donate time may call 378-5323.

Gas, oil and servicing of the truck will be sought from oil companies, philanthropic organizations and possibly from the city of Campbell.



THE MINI-BUS WILL RUN–A check for $5,000 has been received from the Self-Help Foundation to the West Valley Senior Action Center to be used to purchase a "mini-bus" which will aid senior citizens in the acute transportation problem. Above Mrs. Clara Gregg, transportation chairman for the Action Center and Mrs. Irma Reese, director of the West Valley group, admire the check before depositing it in the bank.

FIRST TWO STORIES--The drill tower of the Campbell Fire Station No. 2 on Sunnyoaks Ave. now has two of the four stories planned, almost complete. When finished the concrete building will be used for training firemen in high ladder work, rescue work, smoke drills and salvage work for water damage. Water for the hose drills will be provided from one of the percolation ponds located on the property, with the bottom of the building equipped with drain holes, allowing the same water to be used over and over.

Live with the changes

Those of us who bemoaned the passing of the orchards and recall with considerable nostalgia blossom time, fruit picking, and the canning and packing activities that were the main concern, directly or indirectly, of this area for so many years, will have to adjust our sights to even greater urbanization in the future.

According to the experts, total population in the county is expected to climb as high as 1.5 million by 1980 -- an increase of 51 per cent from 1968.

Thus, those of us who think the area is crowded now better be prepared to accept half again as many people in the next decade.

We are well aware that this is known, in some circles, as "progress" and with progress comes opportunities.

With progress also there will be changes.

Conceding that this area has radically changed during the past two decades from a rural to an urbanized region, it must also follow that even more drastic modifications will take place in the years to come.

As much as some of us in the Campbell area would like to retain some of the basic rural or small town atmosphere of the past, it is not to be.

We, therefore, have to face up to the situation whether we like it or not.

Our own crystal ball has never been of much value to us in attempting to foresee future developments, i.e., until the situation becomes so apparent that it is easily recognizable.

That is the way it is today in this community.

One-time residents who have returned to this area after an absence of 10 years or so have been utterly amazed at what has taken place.

But, in our opinion, they haven't seen anything yet.

We submit that in 10 years from now the "new" Campbell will have little, if any, resemblance to the present community, especially in the so-called downtown core.

We are in sympathy with those residents who are opposing the establishment of the plan line for the north loop street.

But sympathy is all we can offer.

No one wants to have his mode of life changed or have his residence replaced by a street.

Obviously no one in a quiet neighborhood area will favor the transformation into bustling urbanized action.

We do not necessarily tag these changes as "progress". But we do maintain it is inevitable because of the circumstances that we are powerless to halt.

There is no way to stick our heads in the sand and let the rest of our world go by.

The changes are coming. We should live with them and try to make the best of it.

As a matter of fact, some of the "changes" have already arrived or are so obvious that even our own broken-down crystal ball shows them clearly.

As a for instance, examine, if you will, the effect just three major projects, that are under way now or will soon be, will have on the so-called downtown core.

Even the most rural-minded individual must concede that the advent of "The Towers," the 18-story office building at Bascom and Campbell avenues, and the development of the adjacent commercial center on what just a few years ago was orchard land, will have tremendous impact on the entire downtown area.

The construction of the civic center complex between First and Harrison, a few hundred feet off Campbell Ave., will also do much to change the picture.

And the transformation of the Gomes Ranch between Latimer and Hamilton into a huge apartment complex and commercial area will also have a direct bearing on the old downtown section.

What we are trying to convey here is that there is very little we can do to stop these changes, even if we wanted to.

We suppose that it would be possible to place roadblocks of one sort or another in the way of these projects.

But then it would be more like trying to use a sawhorse to halt a bull-dozer. It would only mean a slight delay, if any.

It seems to us then that what is needed in this community is to accept the inevitable and attempt to make the "new" Campbell one of which we can all be proud, with all of us working toward the same objective.

Naturally there will be differences of opinion as to what guidelines should be used in making the "new" Campbell.

First, however, we must accept the premise that there will be a "new" Campbell.

We are convinced that will be the case based on what is happening now.

And it's later than we may think.

schools. In fact, we have had it for several years. This presents no problem for 99% of our teachers who do an excellent job, but the 1% can use instant tenure as cover, concealment and protection at the expense of our boys and girls.

The time is long overdue when this law should be revised.

BASIC EDUCATION–Most college teachers are considered to be full-time staff members when they teach 12 hours per week. Most first grade teachers teach approximately 35 hours per week.

Both groups have other responsibilities after the students leave the classroom, but I believe that it is time that we considered some assistance and/or relief for the first grade teacher. Try teaching 30 boys and girls to write and read for the first time and I believe that you will join me in looking for assistance for the first grade teacher. It could mean that we should take part of the funds now being paid to superintendents and other educators, but I'll go along with this theory.

Every boy and girl must receive the best during the basic years even if we must curtail some other program up the educational ladder.

STUDENT UNREST – We have a minimum of student unrest in Campbell Union School District and I think we have avoided this problem because we have the greatest group of boys and girls in the world.

We hasten to add that parents who believe in standards, set the example, support the school, and good teaching in the classroom by excellent teachers prevents many problems including student unrest.

We must not become complacent and we need to listen to students, solicit their ideas and provide the guidance that they need and desire. Never let it be suggested that we abandon our adult responsibilities to anyone but we are not too old to listen and accept advice from intelligent young citizens such as we have in our schools.

We must consider all possibilities, review all available data, seek the facts and have the courage to make a decision when the time arrives for action.

Popularity must not be the guiding factor in decision making for our schools.

SCHOOL FACILITIES–We are fortunate to have elected officials on our city council and school board who are willing to talk and work together as a team. Our recent city bond election for parks and recreation facilities in connection with school sites is a step in the right direction.

The opportunity is here for Parent Teacher Association Leaders, Home & School Club Officers and teachers, students and the public in general to rally around our forward-looking city and develop plans for school sites second to none.

We must take advantage of this opportunity while we have time, space and funds.

The opportunity will never come again if we let this chance slip from our grasp.

CITIZEN INTEREST IN SCHOOLS–Less than 10% of the registered voters went to the polls last April when various school districts scheduled elections for governing board members.

This could be interpreted as happiness with education in general but I suggest that good board members need a larger vote of confidence than 10%. It is not necessary for a citizen to have a youngster enrolled in school to be interested and active.

You only need to check in with your local school and there is a good chance that you will be put to work in a Parent Teacher Association or Home and School Club.

Do not underestimate your ability in this area because there are many jobs to be done.

Just one warning–once you begin working with boys and girls you may not be able to kick the habit. However, the rewards will more than repay you for your time and effort

You will have an excellent opportunity to assist in determining how your taxes are being spent.

SECOND ROBBERY

On Oct. 10 the Billy Wilson Bottle Shop, 1700 S. Bascom Ave. was robbed of approximately $200 by an armed robber who threatened the two clerks on duty and a third clerk who was in the vicinity, locking them in the toilet before leaving with the money.

The robber fled into the parking lot where he attempted to threaten one woman into giving him a ride, and after she refused he went on to a car occupied by Mrs. Jo Ann Flores and her six-months-old daughter. Climbing into the car and jabbing her with the gun, he made her drive around the West Valley area for approximately 20 minutes before getting out of the car.

Private residences were also victims during the last week with numerous homes being ransacked while the owners were away.

drive-in theater was not a good use for the existing development, he felt that if sufficient safeguards were inacted to keep a buffer between the mobile home park and a new screen that compatibility was as easy for a drive-in as for the high density use possible under present zoning.

Mobile home developer Fred Sahadi argued that the compatibility was much greater for residential development. He did, however, favor medium to low density, rather than high density on the 6.7 acres.

Issue of the evening was the possibility of "land-locking" Syufy's parcel by the present zoning if an easement type access should be considered illegal by City Attorney Joseph Bonacina, who was not present.

(Bonacina is attending the 34th annual National Institute of Municipal Law Officers in Los Angeles.)

Several councilmen, including vice-mayor Dean Chamberlin, expressed concern that the city would have to foot the bill for a public street to service the area.

The granting of a third screen use, however, would not need access to Union Ave., as the theater patrons would use egress presently in use, as well as an additional right-of-way recently obtained by Syufy from the County Water Conservation District.

Councilman Ed Rogers drew applause from the audience for declaring "Housing has a higher priority than a third screen".

The public hearing, although closed, was deferred for action until the Oct. 27 council meeting, to allow for the city attorney to prepare an opinion about access to the land.

Jaycees form club alliance

Formation of the Campbell Service Alliance to more effectively coordinate volunteer community programs and launch new projects was announced today by Nozer Haladwala, president of the Campbell JayCees.

Establishment of such local alliances was proposed by Governor Ronald Reagan to the California Service Alliance a group consisting of representatives of leading service, civic, fraternal, trade and professional organizations.

The statewide group was formed to promote more effective service-oriented activities in communities throughout the state.

According to Haladwala, the local alliance will seek to: audit service projects, solicit participation in projects of human concern by groups not currently involved, assess what more needs to be done, and launch new programs.

Its goal is to make the thrust of volunteer community service activities more effective, he said.

The JayCees will act only as the catalyst and leadership of the alliance, will be determined by the entire membership.

Letters of invitation to the proposed organization's first meeting will be sent to 23 groups in the area.

center property was referred to the city attorney. Councilmen did express pleasure that the trees were to be planted.

An amount of $2000 was voted from park bond funds to complete the Campbell-Moreland Pony League construction presently stale-mated in Rincon Park. City Manager Bob Stephens said all bills would be presented to the city for payment.

Two recommendations by the Campbell Citizens for Beautification were referred to staff. The first, a request to consider refuse pick-up within the city twice weekly, would have to be considered on the basis of need, and the councilmen felt no adequate study had been made. The second, requesting an ordinance which would require maintenance of landscaping of a firm when that firm goes out of business, was referred to the city attorney.

A bid was referred to lower bidder, Fox Motors, for purchase of two police cars at a cost of $11,309.32.

Because of the unusually heavy agenda, two items on the agenda were continued to last (Tuesday) night at 7:30 p.m. These were financial and architectural factors regarding the City Hall Complex and recommendations from the "Third Annual Congress for Community Action" held last March.

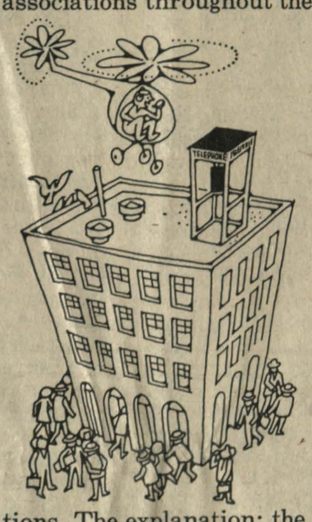
While most people who sell by telephone are considerate, once in awhile you'll find someone who rudely persists — even after you've told them politely that you're not interested in what they're selling. In such a case, my advice is to simply hang up. Of course, if the caller continues to bother you, be sure and contact your Business Office. We want your telephone to be a convenience.

This year Californians are celebrating the state's bicentennial —the 200th anniversary of the founding of the first settlement in San Diego by the Spanish. In keeping with the celebration of this important first step in our history, official state commemorative medallions have been struck from both bronze and silver. These distinctive medallions carry the state symbol, a grizzly bear, on the face; and figures symbolic of the state's history on the reverse side. They're available for purchase at most banks and at savings and loan associations throughout the state.



Pay phones are usually in busy places where they're convenient to the passerby. Places like hotel lobbies and main thoroughfares. So the spotlighted phone booth on the roof of a building was the source of much speculation. Among those whose curiosity was aroused by this "booth in the sky" was a helicopter-borne traffic reporter who began asking questions. The explanation: the building belongs to one of the companies that manufactures our phone booths—and while a roof top may be a novel location for one, it makes for some unusual conversation!

The difference among S & L's is the service they offer. Everything else is much the same. Colonial has a heritage of service. Our name is a reminder of the days when there were town halls and villages... and you did business with people you knew and trusted. All Colonial offices are dedicated to their communities. Most have been a part of their towns and neighborhoods for many years so the people they serve are friends, not customers... and never numbers. Colonial, you see, believes that there is at least one thing more important than the fact it pays the highest interest on insured savings paid day-in to day-out. And that's upholding its reputation for being a pleasant association.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean at home in San Jose

Calvin Presbyterian Church on Fruitdale Ave. was beautifully decorated with white gladioli and tall white tapers for the late summer wedding of Miss Debbie Joyce Larson and Russell James Dean.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Larson, was escorted to the flower-banked altar by her father. For her wedding day Debbie chose a white slipper satin and Venise lace gown with long lace sleeves and a detachable train of lace over satin. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a pearl tiara.

Debbie carried her bridal bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis upon her Jobs Daughter's Bible, and for "something old", she carried a lace handkerchief made by her great-grandmother. A graduate of Del Mar High School, Debbie is a past honored queen of Bethel 174, Job's Daughters of Campbell.

Soft blue mist was chosen for the floor-length gown of the maid of honor, Miss Carolyn Kuri, who carried a colonial bouquet of white and blue carnations tied with blue ribbons as she preceded her friend down the aisle.

The four bridesmaids, the Misses Lynette Long, Kathi Parker, Claudia Lawrence and Mrs. Betty Jo Sims, were gowned alike in long blue old-fashioned dresses and each carried a colonial bouquet similar to the maid of honor's.

The Rev. William Walmsly officiated at the double ring ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Larson chose a yellow ensemble with white accessories and Mrs. Dean, mother of the groom, wore pink lace with white accessories.

Russell chose for his best man Lew Jenkins, a school friend of many years. Ushering were Bob Srizzell, Bob Holmes and David and Stephen Larson, brothers of the bride. Ricky Dean, Russell's brother, served as candlelighter for the ceremony.

Russell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dean of Antioch. He is presently attending San Jose State College and is employed by I.B.M.

At the reception held in the church social hall, Miss Jenni Johnson, cousin of the bride, wore a pink dress with a pink corsage as she served as guest book attendant. While the newly-weds greeted their guests, favors were served by the Misses Denise Larson and Lisa Johnson.

A Navy blue and white ensemble with navy accessories and a white orchid was chosen by the new Mrs. Dean for their honeymoon trip to the Monterey peninsula.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean are now making their new home in San Jose close to the college where they are both attending school.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

Many a 65-year-old social security beneficiary in the Campbell area has experienced a new type of medical service which was unheard of before the advent of Medicare. It is a medical benefit provided under the hospital coverage of Medicare. It is described in the Social Security Law as post-hospital extended care service.

This post-hospital extended care becomes a reality when the Medicare beneficiary's doctor decides that the intensive care of the hospital is no longer necessary, but the beneficiary still requires around-the-clock skilled nursing attention.

At this point, the doctor arranges for the beneficiary to enter a specially qualified health facility which is staffed and equipped to furnish full-time skilled nursing care and other related health services. This health facility is referred to as an extended care facility.

To qualify for extended care benefits, the Medicare beneficiary must have been in a regular hospital for three days or longer and be admitted to the extended care facility within 14 days after discharge from the hospital. His doctor must determine that the post-hospital care is needed as further treatment of the condition which required the hospital confinement.

Campbell Corners

By Cindy Harris

Campbell's second school dance was held in the boy's gym last Friday night and featured the Spiders, a band that almost knocked the walls down. The dance was a Sock Hop put on by Block C.

Mr. Marucci is the advisor for Block C this year and the officers are Duane Elkins, president; Tom McAfee, vice-president; Doug Campbell, secretary; Bill Mitchell, treasurer; and Don Vierra, Sergeant at Arms. Anyone who has earned a block is eligible for membership.

I promised two weeks ago that I would tell you who the freshman class officers are so here is the low-down; Mark Brusaschetti, president; Becky Herman, vice-president; Stephanie Christie, secretary; and Leah Rawlinson, treasurer.

I hope everyone noticed at last Friday's football game that the scoreboard has been painted. Our thanks go to Bruce Wood, Tim McCauley and Dave Chiaramonte for their work on beautifying our board with its red, white and blue paint. These three are members of the Key Club of which Tom McAfee is president.

The Buccaneer Band put on the half-time show at Friday's game. This year's drum major is Mark Harville, a senior. The director is Mr. Clarence Savage.

Steve Davis, a sophomore on Campbell's varsity squad, was named Player of the Week by the coaches for his outstanding efforts in the game against Saratoga last week. Steve ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the game's first play.

This week Campbell will tangle with Camden. The frosh-soph game on Thursday, will be played on our field. The varsity will scramble on Camden's ground.

Under G.A.A. (Girl's Athletic Association) activities the Modern Dance Club is functioning under the direction of Mrs. Kay Devita. They are hoping to have a dance concert in the near future.

Miss Diane Dorrington is directing synchronized swimming, also under G.A.A. The girls meet on Tuesday afternoons. They are hoping to put on a performance in the second quarter of school.

In case you haven't noticed, the People-to-People Board has been put up next to the Dean's Office and is waiting for your advertisements and announcements to be put up on it. If there is something you want to sell, something you are looking for, or something else that you need to communicate to other students, then write it up on a card or piece of paper, bring it to Mr. Altman, room 35, and it will be posted when approved.

POSTER CONTEST WINNER---Armando Delgado, right, Blackford High School junior, placed second in the United Nations Festival poster contest. With him is Samuel Ayalo of Overfelt High School, third place winner. The United Nations festival will be held at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 18, 19. Continuous international entertainment will be presented and food will be sold by various nationality groups.

Prospect Pulse

by IVALEE INGRAHAM

Despite the fact that many players were out with injuries, Panther gridmen defeated the Camden Cougars 12-7 in a game played Friday at Prospect.

Great offensive ball playing by Halfback Marko De Monja won for him the award for the most valuable player of the week.

This is the second week in a row the Prospect senior has won the award, as he also received it for the game played against Westmont on Oct. 3. The award entitles him to two free pizzas at The Straw Hat Pizza parlor.

Tryouts for the senior play, "The Diary of Anne Frank," were held last Wednesday and Thursday. Those chosen for parts in the drama are:

Sandy Lukacs, Anne Frank; Ed Church, Mr. Frank; Liz Rao, Mrs. Frank; Kathy Smith, Mrs. Van Daan; Steve Yaste, Mr. Van Daan; Ken Chase, Peter; Mike Grey, Mr. Dussel; Scott Hutchinson, Mr. Kraler; Barb Goodell, Miep; and Lavonne Ramsey, Margot.

Student directors are Debbie Jones and Kathie Brown. The play, directed by Miss Carol Long, will be presented in late November.

Prospect fans went wild Oct. 3 as they watched the Panthers smash the Westmont Warriors 40-0. The day before the Panther Frosh-Soph crushed the Warriors 38-0.

After Friday's game there was a victory rally outside the boy's gym. The Cheerleaders and Letter Girls led victory cheers, and the Song Girls and Drill Team danced to music supplied by the marching band.

Prospect met the Camden Cougars during the last week. Frosh-Soph played Thursday on the Cougar field. Varsity teams tangled Friday at 3:30 on the Panther field.

Varsity Coach Adams will each week pick the most valuable football player. The winner will receive a free pizza from the Straw Hat Pizza Parlor on Campbell Ave. Bruce Tenma won the award for the Soquel game two weeks ago.

First dance of the year was Oct. 10 in the cafetorium. Southern Fried provided the music for the evening.

Student Council elections were held Sept. 30. Those elected were Ross Meinhold, junior; Ed Cotter, soph; and Julie Palmquist, freshman. These students will hold office for the first semester.

Elections for class officers were held Oct. 14. Petitions are available now for those interested in running.

"The Diary of Anne Frank" is the Senior Play this year. The cast consists of 6 male and 5 female parts.

CIGARETTE TAX

State Controller Houston I. Flournoy today announced the distribution of $6,241,488 to counties and cities as the September apportionment of cigarette tax. Santa Clara County's share was $43,490.06 and Campbell's share was $8,649.12.

This amount represents 30 percent of the revenue deposited in the Cigarette Tax Fund during the month of August, 1969. The counties' share was $1,194,799 and the cities' share was $5,046,689.

VA ENROLLMENT

Enrollment in veterans education programs stood at 450,000 at the end of March 1968.

Westmont Whirl

By Linda Hall

Seniors Kris Stephens and Brad Eazarsky are two finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Test. Letters of Commendation were sent to Dan Jones, Anita Enander and Rich Gerauld.

Lights for the bowl, dances and two basketball games are just a few of the activities planned by the new Westmont Booster Club.

The main purpose of the club is to assist the Westmont sports program, girls' as well as boys'.

One of the major goals of the club is lights for the football stadium.

The club was created by Mr. James Patterson who is now the president.

The Junior class had their annual magazine sale Sept. 30 through Oct. 13. The class made $4500. Winning first prize was Chris Rainie, second prize was Jim Haney, third prize was Robin Noble.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

For good reason the newest and most popular domestic issue is pollution of our environment. Hundreds of study clubs and other progressive groups have performed a great service in alerting the public to the need for constructive action to combat pollution.

This had its effect upon Congress, so the request by former President Johnson as well as President Nixon for $214 million to build local sewage treatment plants was raised by the House Appropriations Committee to $600 million. In fact, with the unexpected balance of last year of $65 million, the available funds would be more than tripled.

The $600 million figure was entirely justified but as in every case where an emotional issue is involved the Appropriations Committee was certain to be outbid no matter what it suggested. As a result more than 100 members of the House climbed on a bandwagon to support a full $1 billion appropriation, the total amount authorized in law.

There were several things wrong with the argument advanced by a collection of House liberals and others who went along because the issue was too complicated to explain.

In the first place, authorizations in law are only upper limitations of expenditure. To look upon authorization as an amount which must be appropriated would be to return to the chaos which existed prior to 1920 when the same committees of Congress authorized and appropriated funds as well. The situation was so bad that in 1916 the platforms of both political parties called for the separation of authorization and appropriation.

So, today it is perfectly normal for actual funding to be less than authorization. For example, only 4% of authorized public works projects are funded, 36% of Model Cities projects receive money, and urban renewal is only funded to 53% of authorization. The same is true of military authorizations.

The tripled appropriation recommended for sewage treatment plants ($600 million) would have provided more money than 25 states needed. Seven states would have received enough. Eighteen states including California would fall short of meeting their needs.

It is interesting to note that even with a billion dollar appropriation, many of this group of 18 would receive only a pittance as an increase. This is because the real problem is the formula which allocates funds by population instead of need.

Actually California will probably be able to fund every project which is ready to go from the $600 million appropriation. Experience shows that 30% of all applications don't reach the final processing stage within a fiscal year. This is due to failure of local elections, bonding problems, and engineering difficulties.

California will have all the money that is required for projects which will be ready to go. (Last year, with only 1/3 of this year's funds available, more than $65 million was not expended.)

It will be easy to confuse the public regarding the vote which took place in the House last week. A vote for money which will never be spent is not a vote against pollution. When carefully examined it is meaningless and fiscally irresponsible.

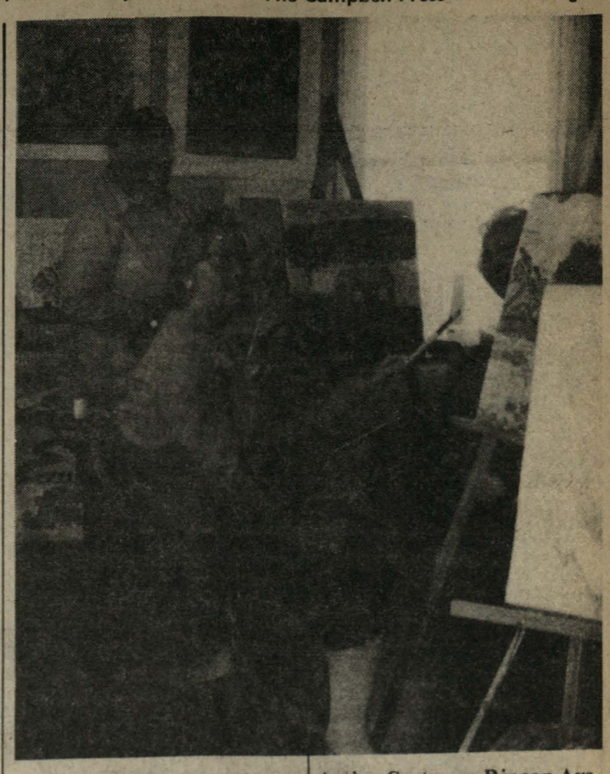
SCHOOL DAYS. GOOD OLD GOLDEN RULE DAYS--

Hazelwood Home and School Club will hold open house for all parents on Oct. 28 at 7:30 p.m. Theme of the program will be School Days, Golden Rule Days, and a student from each classroom will introduce their teacher. Above Mrs. Judy Bowman, first grade teacher practices the introduction with Mark Loher, Michelle Thornton and Claudia Lee.

Senior Action Center scene of lots of action

THE NUMBER IS--B-24. A group of senior ladies enjoy an afternoon of playing bingo at the West Valley Senior Action Center on Rincon Ave. Prizes are given to the winners, being brought from the homes of the various players. The number varies with some of the ladies staying for the full afternoon and others coming and going during the game time.



GOOD THERAPY, TOO--

Many of the senior citizens enjoying the art classes being held at the West Valley Senior Action Center on Rincon Ave. are crippled with arthritus, and painting is providing excellent exercise for crippled hands.

Stop in at the Senior Action Center located on West Rincon Ave. almost any day, and you will see an active group of senior citizens engaged in the art of "living".

No longer do seniors sit at home lamenting that there is nothing to do--they are down at the center playing bingo, taking art lessons, sewing, planning on camping trips or just enjoying being out with other people. One of the first things noticeable about the "retired" citizens, in this day and age of sloppy youth, is the careful grooming they all maintain.

The ladies all have carefully coiffured hair and they are beautifully groomed. Earrings, necklaces and broaches are much in evidence plus a lively interest in the companionship and in learning new skills.

Mrs. Irma Reese, director of the center, is enthusiastically talking about a craft center that can be used as a display shop for the various crafts that retired seniors produce. A garage will be used for the shop, located on the West Rincon Ave. site.

The advent of a mini-bus, soon to be purchased with funds received from The Self-Help Foundation, will aid in transporting seniors to the center where they may have a chance to visit with friends, engage in hobbies and re-enter the life stream of the community.

So--if you have reached the span of life when you can sit back and enjoy some of the leisure you dreamed about during your working years--come on down to the West Valley Senior Action Center--that's where all the action is.

BINGO--is the excited cry heard often on Thursday afternoons at the West Valley Senior Action Center on Rincon Ave. Above are seen some of the lovely ladies at their games.

ART IN ACTION--is a reality at the West Valley Senior Action Center on Tuesday and Friday afternoons as Frances Kersh, art instructor, brings a new dimension in living to the senior citizens interested in learning a new skill.

Franchise tax board collects $1.5 billion in taxes in 1967-69

The California Franchise Tax Board collected $1.5 billion individual and corporate taxes during the 1967-68 fiscal year, according to the department's annual report for the 1968 calendar year.

The 128-page report shows a $576 million increase in collections over the $953 million collected in 1966-67.

More than 5½ million individual income tax returns were filed in 1968, reporting $52.8 billion adjusted gross income, $8.9 billion in deductions, and $43.9 billion taxable income for the 1967 income tax year. Self-assessed tax after credits reported on these returns totaled $948 million.

There were 127,500 bank and corporation franchise tax returns for the 1968 calendar year and fiscal years ending therein, reporting $6.5 billion taxable net income on which $457 million in self-assessed taxes was paid.

Ninety percent of all individual income tax returns reported salaries and wages. Thirty-five percent reported salaries and wages as the sole source of income and 54 percent reported salaries and wages and one or more other sources of income. Interest income was reported on 54 percent of the returns and dividends on 24 percent.

For the first time since 1958, corporate net income declined from the preceding year, reflecting a general slowdown in the State's corporate activity. Despite the 2½ percent decline, net income gains were reported by firms engaged in agriculture, forestry and fishing, services, trade, finance, insurance and real estate.

Girl who couldn't---did

In 1927 a family in Northern California was stricken by polio. Four youngsters were in that family. Two died.

Of the two that survived, one is an active member of the Campbell community.

She is Mrs. Ruth Reiter, paralyzed from the waist down, who holds forth in her living room bed on Milton Ave., spending hours answering the telephone for the United Nations Association, offering advice and counsel for the young people of her church, and generally being "Ma" to hundreds of persons who call her on the phone.

Mrs. Reiter, who is currently writing her fascinating life story, is the living proof of her own philosophy: "Just because you're handicapped, doesn't mean you should sit home and die on the vine."

Mrs. Reiter feels she owes a good deal of her personal philosophy of keeping active to a remarkable foster mother, who refused to allow Ruth's handicap to hamper her activities, sending her through public school and insisting that she try things before admitting that she was hindered.

"Including riding the school bus to high school, which others said couldn't be done," says the proud mother of two sons.

Mrs. Reiter wore braces on her legs for many years and finally after the birth of her second son Dennis, now a student of Williams Continuation School (because of a loss of much school time due to a number of major operations) was confined to a wheelchair.

During her wheelchair years, Mrs. Reiter was active in forming the Valley Handies, a club for homebound handicapped, "persons who could get out if someone would take them".

Mrs. Reiter's work with the UN sometimes entails answering as many as 40 calls a day, booking films, arranging speakers, taking reservations for the UNA's dinners and luncheons. (The group meets once a month - in her living room!)

Some of the calls are a bit unusual, she admits, like small children who have seen posters depicting starving children, and "just want to help".

Others "come on strong" and whenever there is a crisis abroad, Mrs. Reiter is guaranteed of many calls pro or con the problem. She is currently preparing for an onslaught of parents whose children want to carry UNICEF containers for Hallowe'en. (Chairman is Mrs. Tunzi, 266-5305.)

High on Mrs. Reiter's list of "great" people are the personnel of the Campbell Police and Fire Depts., who have come to her aid on several occasions.

"When we'd just lived in Campbell a few years, one of my children brought home the mumps and my sons Kenneth and Dennis and my husband, George, were all very ill. My husband's fever broke in the middle of the night and I was confined to my wheelchair. A call to the Campbell Fire Dept. brought a fireman and a policeman to my home who changed my husband's bed linen and assured me that I could call them anytime for help.

"We had another funny experience, just sitting here at home, which warms my heart. My brother (the other survivor of the polio siege) had fixed up a television set for me. My husband and I were sitting idly one Friday night and turned to UHF. We were startled by a 'Mayday, Mayday' coming over the set.

"I urged my husband to call the police department and by mistake, he called the fire department. In turn, we were referred to the police, then to Moffett Field and eventually we called 'Search and Rescue' in San Francisco.

"Actually, none of the agencies seemed to know who or what the 'Mayday' was, but we did repeat the call letters.

"Imagine our surprise when we received a call from the Livermore Monitoring Service (FCC) the next day and were told that we had received the transmission from a DC-3 down off Hilo, Hawaii. Seems that the Campbell Fire Department was being monitored when we made our call and the monitoring service had passed the call on. I sure would like to meet those three young men who were rescued that night.

"So you see, you can sit and tend to your own business and still get into things!"

Mrs. Reiter enjoys camping and last year her family took a 4000 mile trip in their Dodge camper. Husband George is a carpenter and built a "contraption" which allows her to be transported from a bed at home into a bed in the camper.

Because of increasing high blood pressure, she isn't allowed to be alone during the day, and so son Kenneth, 21, and recently married cooks nights at Spivey's so he may be available to his mother during the day.

Mrs. Reiter would enjoy turning her talents to some profitable enterprise and has accidentally developed a few unusual skills. An expert knitter, she turns out a sweater a week for some member of her family. She also is adept at making tiny roses out of ribbon and a beauty school student found that her patrons and fellow classmates could put them to good use as hair decorations.

She also has a roomful of oils painted by herself, including portraits, landscapes, oils, and still life.

How are the family skills managed? "Everyone cooks, but like every other household, no one likes to do the dishes."

She is proud of her two sons, who she raised while confined to her bed and found that "if you mean what you say" children can be most cooperative.

One of her recent pleasures was the making of the bouquets for her new daughter-in-law and her four attendants.

Ruth Reiter was a girl who couldn't and did.

UN TICKETS -- Being bedridden does not stop Mrs. Ruth Reiter, 357 N. Milton Ave., from being a top saleswoman for the luncheon sponsored by the United Nations Cultural organization at the county fairgrounds Saturday. Mrs. Reiter also displays knitting and artificial flowers she has made in her spare time.

THIS HORSE WENT TO SCHOOL--Fourth grade students at Campbell Elementary School went to an outdoor lecture Friday afternoon as Penny Clever, eighth grade student, brought her horse to school as part of her science lesson.

Eighth graders receive extra science credit for bringing their hobbies or animals to school and delivering a comprehensive lecture to fourth grade students, telling them what they have learned about a particular subject.

Penny's subject was her registered Appaloosa mare, Pawnee's Mic-ka-toni, who is shown above having her teeth examined as Penny explains how to tell a horse's age by its teeth. The lecture was topped off by a riding, saddling and grooming demonstration. Top photos depict the crowd of fourth graders gathered at a safe distance, and Penny and her father, Chet Clever, with Mic.

UN festival

The United Nations Association of Santa Clara County will sponsor a two-day cultural festival at the county fairgrounds Saturday and Sunday featuring international foods, exhibits, folk dancing, crafts, handcrafts and entertainment.

The festival opens Saturday, Oct. 18, at 11:30 a.m. with a luncheon. Each participating country's food booth supplying enough of their native food for 200 guests.

Chairman for the event is Frank Lowe, realtor, who has involved approximately 35 organizations and 400 persons in the preparations for the two-day cultural event.

The festival will inform residents what people are doing in other countries, according to Mrs. Ruth Reiter, information chairman for UNA.

Mrs. Reiter, who has luncheon tickets, can be reached for additional information at 378-2535.

SPORTS FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

By Al Salciccia

Here's a football fact that's hard to believe, but it's true... Remember that famous pro championship game in 1940 when the Chicago Bears beat the Washington Redskins 73-0?... Well, although the Redskins lost by 73 points, they actually made MORE FIRST DOWNS than the Bears did that day!... It seems impossible - - but here are the official totals: The Bears had 17 first downs in that game, and the Redskins 18!

What was the longest field goal ever kicked in a football game?... The record was set by Jim Haxall of Princeton in a game in 1882 when he kicked a 65-yard field goal... * * *

How well do you know your football rules? . . . Here's a little puzzler for you ...Suppose a forward pass is tried and a player from each of the offensive and defensive team collide and both catch the ball together ...They fall to the ground, each holding the ball and each having equal possession... What's the ruling?... The official rules say in a situation like this, the ball belongs to the offensive team at the spot of the catch, and is considered a completed pass.

Stop smoking clinic starts at WVC Oct. 20

People describe him as a real bear - constantly irritable and very nervous. His problem - he quit smoking. There is an easier way to give up smoking, however.

A five-day course on how to stop smoking will begin at West Valley College, Oct. 20. Sponsored by the Office of Community Services, the clinic is a tested and proven means of breaking the smoking habit. It was developed over the past ten years by the Seventh Day Adventist denomination and involves both medical and counseling experts.

The clinic meets its goals through a non-religious three-part program of lecture-discussion, informational material and follow-up plan.

Limited enrollment for the course will be handled on a first-come first-served basis. Registration may be accomplished through the Office of Community Services, located at 44 E. Latimer Ave., Campbell, room L-26.

COLLEGE PARKING

Dear Sir:

Since I am a woman I must SOUND OFF.

What harm was there when those students parked on the Gomes property? And to top it off - you printed a picture of the parked cars and the ditch, that was really great - don't you think we should help the young when they are students and doing no harm except to park their cars on an unused property?

Sincerely,
Mrs. Harold Love

DAY CAMPERS LEARN TO COOK

Girl Scout Day Camp comes to an end

NEIGHBORHOOD 15

By Nan Warren

Last, but by no means least, in our series on Girl Scout Day Camps are the Brownie and Junior campers. They've come from various parts of our council to share, learn, make new friends and, needless to say, have fun.

The true test of a well-run camp is when the 3:00 o'clock hour approaches and the girls don't want to go home. The crushing blow comes on Friday when they discover camp is all over for another season and they won't be coming back "tomorrow".

They make lasting friendships not only with one another, but with the adults who gave of their time to help with the camp. They think the CREW girls are the "grooviest" and can't wait until they reach the Cadette age when they, too, can pick a funny camp name, play guitars and serve as CREW.

Some skills, games, songs, etc., are familiar to many – others new. Day Camping is a time of sharing. It's great fun to eat something you've cooked "all by yourself"! Fun is taking your turn to crank the ice cream maker, in sharing the glue during a craft project, fishing even if nothing is caught.

All these things, plus many more are theirs for the taking in our Day Camp programs. Is it fun being a camper? Ask any one of well over 5000 girls who attended the various camps this summer. The rate of increase of campers wouldn't be growing like it is if Day Camp wasn't a ball!

WATER POLO

The water - poloists will open Camino Norte Conference play with DeAnza Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Saratoga. The game will pit two of the toughest teams in the state for the first time this year. "They aren't the team they were last year," put in Coach Gene Nyquist. "But they're still a very representative polo team...and cannot be beaten."

But the Vikings aren't looking past today's game with SJS JV's as they accept a rough task against a four year school.

In action last week, West Valley drowned Chabot 8-3 and Diablo Valley 7-3, while losing to Foothill 6-4. Big guns for the Vikes were Harry McGee, Chris Street and Mike Hendrickson. McGee and Street are putting in most of the scoring power while Hendrickson adds fine defense.

SOCCER

Odd plays gave the Valley soccermen a 2-2 tie with top-ranked College of San Mateo last Thursday. Two scores, one by each squad, were driven in by the defending team and on one other occasion the Vike goalie fell to set up a Bulldog score. The only legitimate goal was put through by Talip Bikul in the third quarter for WVC.

Mike Mullenberg was given credit for the other Viking point, being the closest man in orange to the ball. Valley will continue league play next Tuesday when they entertain Canada College at the Saratoga field. The new JC has won their first two games of the fresh season.

CROSS-COUNTRY

"Santa Rosa should be real tough, but we're just in a real tough league this year," opined cross - country coach Tom Smith after a disheartening 21-34 loss to Marin. The Vikings will face SR next Friday afternoon on their Saratoga course. Les DeVoe ended in the runner-up spot in the race with the Tars at 23:41 in a losing cause.

WHAT IS A PHARMACIST?

Your pharmacist is an expert on medicines. Formerly, he prepared, stored and compounded most of the medicines in the prescriptions written by the doctor. Alhough your pharmacist today does less compounding, he must know a great deal more about medicines and their ingredients.

Your pharmacist must know how to combine medicines and their effects on the body. His knowledge assures the safety, accuracy and the purity of the prescriptions he dispenses. Your pharmacist is also your family friend. He is interested in your health and wants to help you protect it. We are proud when a family chooses us to be their personal pharmacy.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs.

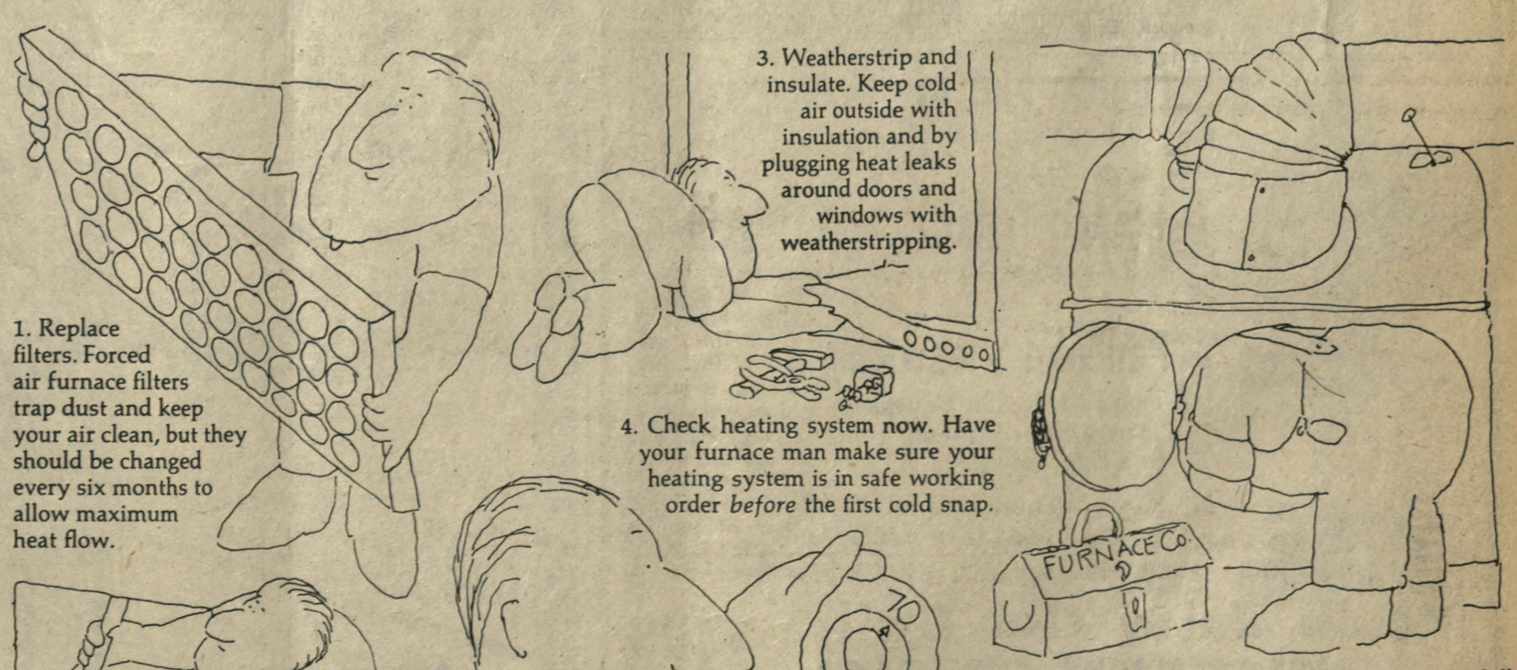
How to beat the rising cost of winter.



1. Replace filters. Forced air furnace filters trap dust and keep your air clean, but they should be changed every six months to allow maximum heat flow.

2. Close damper when your fireplace is not in use and stop heat escaping up your chimney. Close drapes and stop up to 16% of heat loss.

3. Weatherstrip and insulate. Keep cold air outside with insulation and by plugging heat leaks around doors and windows with weatherstripping.

4. Check heating system now. Have your furnace man make sure your heating system is in safe working order before the first cold snap.

5. Leave thermostat set. Agree on a healthy thermostat setting and leave it there. If chilly, put on a sweater.

Winter PG&E bills are higher than summer bills because you eat more hot meals, watch more tv, need more heating, more lighting and use more appliances. However, typical PG&E gas and electric rates have gone down 13.9% since 1935, while the cost of living has gone up 183%. Even with the gas rate increase we've had to request, a typical gas and electric customer would get more for his money than he would have 34 years ago.

FOOTBALL

The Ray brothers will do it yet! Each week turning in better performances on the gridiron, the two will soon get West Valley College ranked in the state's top ten. Dave has rambled for 536 yards in 98 carries while Larry has scored 37 points, his talented toe accounting for all but 12, as Valley has remained undefeated through their first four games.

The two Ray's, along with signal-caller Bill Barnes, receivers Stan Hedegard and Scott Loomis, and a host of equal talent, will be seeking their fifth straight win when they open league play against Marin Saturday night at Santa Clara High's Townsend Field.

The 8 p.m. contest will find Marin, at the state play-offs for the last two years, looking for the start of another Camino Norte Conference title season. The Tars have been beaten by the Vikes in both of those years and will be out in a grudge battle.

Valley's latest shut-out was a 20-0 upset win over American River last Saturday night in Sacramento.
